ALPACAS

Entry Fee: Members: All entries £12 per animal
 Non Members: All entries £17 per animal
Entry Close Date: 16th August 2019

This is a halter show (short-fleeced), to be guided by the general rules and conditions recommended by the British Alpaca Society.

Exhibitors are requested to have their stock in place by 7.45am on Show morning. Judging will commence at 8.45am and exhibitors may not leave before 4.00pm.

Due to the early start on Show morning, exhibitors are invited to arrive from 3pm on the afternoon prior to Show Day. The Society will offer two Stockman Supper vouchers to each exhibitor for use between 7.30pm and 9.30pm.

All alpacas (except Class A500) must be registered with the British Alpaca Society and must be easily identifiable as such by the Steward. Handlers are requested to be of smart appearance and white coats and suitable footwear must be worn when exhibiting.

Classes may be amalgamated dependant on entries, as decided by the Judge.

Comprehensive biosecurity procedures will be in place, in accordance with BAS guidance and a reduction in the number of entries may be necessary to enable the required gap between breeders.

In the event of being over-subscribed, the organisers reserve the right to restrict the number of alpacas per class and/or to close entries early.

You are strongly advised to check your insurance cover on this point. Bulls must be led and ringed at the nose.
5. All Prizewinners in the Cattle Classes must take part in the Parade of Prize Animals or the Prizes will be withheld.
6. In order to discourage frivolous protests, every protest must be made in writing and sent to the Secretary within seven clear days after the date of the Show, and to be accompanied by a deposit of £50 to be returned, or retained, by the vote of the Committee, on consideration as to whether there was reasonable ground or not for the protest.
7. The Conditions attached to any Premium are applicable to all animals gaining a prize of whatever denomination.
